

Providence Alaska Medical Center Auxiliary

Scholarship Information

The Providence Alaska Medical Center Auxiliary is proud each year to offer scholarships in the amount of $1000 each to qualified students working toward a degree in the field of medicine.

In order to qualify, students must:

- Be admitted to a degree seeking clinical major
- Be currently enrolled as a first year student or beyond at one of the institutions of higher education in the State of Alaska
- Have a minimum grade point average of 2.7

To apply, interested students must submit the following by June 30th:

- A complete and current official transcript of grades
- Two letters of recommendation from university or college faculty members
- A two or three page statement that includes:
 - Name, permanent address, phone number, social security number and student ID#
 - A short history of the applicant and family
 - A statement of goals
 - A summary of interests and community involvement
 - A summary of work experience and financial need

Applications should be sent to:

Providence Alaska Medical Center Auxiliary

Scholarship Committee

3200 Providence Drive

PO Box 196604

Anchorage AK 99519-6604

Applications may also be delivered by hand to the Volunteer Services office at Providence Alaska Medical Center. Recipients will be notified in August and funds will be sent directly to the college or university for the fall semester.